We help you find the right Family Office solution

FOSS Family Office Services Switzerland (FOSS) supports you with:

- Your search for and selection of a multi-family office in Switzerland,
- Advice on how to set up your own single-family office (in Switzerland or abroad),
- Advice on selecting a suitable multi-family office in your home jurisdiction.

Every family office is different

There is no 'one size fits all' solution. Every family office functions differently, offers different services, and will therefore be able or, oppositely, completely unable to deliver the services you are looking for. As your family's wealth and future well-being strongly depend on the selection of the right provider, the selection process should be very thorough.

Selecting a family office or setting up your own is therefore not something you decide on or do overnight. Sometimes years pass before the decision to use the services of a family office is made.

Our intermediary services

We support you objectively and unbiased in your search for, selection of and choice of a multi-family office in Switzerland that provides the services which best suit your needs. We can also advise you on setting up your own single-family office (in Switzerland).
